Brothers from Different Mothers

January 29

Juggling Comedians

Be prepared to laugh when the Brothers from Different Mothers are in the spotlight. This dynamic duo of juggling comedians shoulders the challenge of gravity time after time. Watch the Brothers juggle with their feet! Watch Matt chop vegetables in mid air! Watch Alex catch a horse with his face. Their action-packed show will add the missing ingredient to your winter. Witness comedy that topples convention! See stunts that exceed the boundaries of the possible! Their high-energy wackiness and off the wall antics will stop nothing short of hilarity and amazement. Bring the extended family because this is a show for all generations.

Carmona Flamenco

February 5

Flamenco dance plus song, guitar and percussion

Carmona Flamenco presents a mixture of contemporary and traditional flamenco music, dance and percussion. Featuring high energy choreography, mournful songs, riveting instrumentals and beautiful costumes, the show is an example of a typical cabaret show from Sevilla.

Nueva Era

February 12

Salsa

Nueva Era is the Northwest's premier salsa orchestra which brings to you lots of percussion, dressed with jazzy arrangements, fueled with Spanish vocals, salsa, merengue and Latin jazz all in one night. This performance is sure to get everybody off their seats with contagious Afro-Caribbean rhythms from Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, Cuba and Colombia.
